Chester Rothstein's practice concentrates on trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and false advertising matters. Mr. Rothstein specializes in litigation and related enforcement of intellectual property rights and defense of infringement claims. He also blends his litigation skills with negotiation skills and other problem solving techniques.

He counsels clients extensively in the arena of statutory protection of intellectual property portfolios, and negotiates intellectual property merchandise licenses.

Mr. Rothstein has counseled numerous companies in the fashion, toy, novelty, and promotional industries to both protect their brands, products, and designs and to avoid infringement challenges by competitors. He counsels major players, yet similarly understands the concerns of smaller companies.
