(July 19, 2012) On July 17, 2012, the USPTO issued final rules on Third-Party Preissuance Submissions. See Changes To Implement the Preissuance Submissions by Third Parties Provision of the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act, 77 Fed. Reg. 42150 \(July 17, 2012\). The final rules go into effect on September 16, 2012 and apply to any application filed before, on, or after that date.

Section 8 of the AIA amends 35 U.S.C. § 122 by adding new 35 U.S.C. § 122(e), which states that any third party may submit any patents, published patent applications, or other printed publications of potential relevance to the examination of the application to the USPTO for consideration. See Appendix for full text of new 35 U.S.C. § 122(e).

The previous rules regarding third party submissions, (see 37 C.F.R. § 1.99), limited third-party submissions to a time period of two months from the date of publication of the patent application and a maximum of 10 printed documents and, and prohibited comments regarding the relevance of the documents submitted. By contrast, new 35 U.S.C. § 122(e) and new 37 C.F.R. § 1.290 grant longer time periods for submission, allow for an unlimited number of documents to be submitted and, contrary to 37 C.F.R. § 1.99, require comments regarding relevance regardless of the publication status of the application.

The newly issued rules specify the procedural requirements for a third party to follow when making a preissuance written submission to the USPTO. As to timing, the written submission must be made before the earlier of:

- (1) a notice of allowance; or
- (2) the later of
 - (a) six months after first publication, or
 - (b) rejection of any claim.

new 37 C.F.R. § 1.290(b); see also new 35 U.S.C. § 122(e)(1).

The written submission must contain a concise description of relevance of the prior art and be accompanied by a fee of $180 for every 10 documents. Written submissions may be made via the electronic filing system of the USPTO.

To implement the above changes, the final rule creates new 37 C.F.R. § 1.290, entitled “Submissions by third parties in applications,” and deletes existing Section 1.99 entitled “Third-party submission in published application.” (see Appendix for full text of new 37 C.F.R. § 1.290).

New 37 C.F.R. § 1.290 expands on the express statutory requirements of new 35 U.S.C. § 122(e) by:

1. Detailing how to submit printed documents to the USPTO (see new 37 C.F.R. §1.290(e)); and
2. Providing that in the absence of a request by the USPTO, an applicant has no duty to, and need not, reply to a third party submission, (see new 37 C.F.R. § 1.290(h)).

We will continue to monitor the America Invents Act as new rules are issued, and encourage you to review the publications and events page of our firm website (www.arelaw.com) for more information. Please feel free to contact one of our firm’s attorneys to learn more.
