

Event Spotlight: Hot Topics in U.S. Copyright Law with Oxford University Press

In this webinar, moderated by partner Charley Macedo, and joined by a team of IP attorneys from Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein, including partners Anthony Lo Cicero, Chester Rothstein, Douglas Miro, Holly Pekowsky, and associates David P. Goldberg, Christopher Lisiewski, Olivia Harris and Chandler Sturm, Devin Garrity and law clerk Thomas Hart will summarize and discuss some of the most significant judgments and decisions in US federal copyright law issued from 1 January 2020 through 31 December 2020, and in some instances in January 2021.

The webinar will review how US federal copyright law has changed over the past year with respect to:

- US states' rights (e.g., state sovereign immunity and state codes);
- embedded links and photographs in the context of copyright law;
- street art, including murals and graffiti art; and
- a discussion of Google LLC v. Oracle;
- the CASE Act, and the future of copyright law in 2021; and more.

There will be a Q&A session afterward.

This event is free to all attendees, and 1 NYS CLE credit will be available for attendees who return the CLE questionnaire.
