Technology Transfer Tactics quotes Partner Charley Macedo in its April 2024 issue on monetizing AI in Tech Transfer:

"Every day brings what seems to be a never-ending stream of new AI tools. In fact, at his session on monetizing AI at the AUTM conference in February, IP attorney Charles R. Macedo , partner with Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP, told attendees that "since March of 2020, what my VC friends tell me is that every month they get 9,000 new AI companies." And every day, the tools those companies are creating are getting better, because the more we use AI, the more it learns from our interactions, and the better it gets — quickly."
